Note: Howard and Ruth are well known to folks in the Bemidji area. Howard passed some years back and Ruth has moved into a retirement home, their home has been sold. Howard was a 20-year military man: WW II, Korea and around the world duty stations. He and Ruth came back to Minnesota and did a number of things. They had a resort up on Kabetegoma, a farm in Blackduck, and Howard was probably best known for being the manager of the Montgomery Wards store in Bemidji for many years. They had a stunning executive quality home on the east shore of Lake Bemidji, and through the years and worldwide travel, they furnished it with the absolute finest accouterments that only people with a high disposable income could afford. The merchandise that will be presented is a showcase of the "Good Life" of the '50's and '60's, everything in the house is so well kept that you'd swear they bought it yesterday. This is a rare opportunity to purchase quality and refinement that is no longer being produced in our current low budget culture. These types of households are disappearing fast. If you miss your chance here... well I guess you can go into town and buy the best glue and sawdust furniture and plastic household appliances that China has to offer, and learn to live with regret. Hope you make the right choice! The house has been sold, all items absolutely must be removed on the day of the sale.
